Rebel

Rebel sets a new standard in luxury dining by turning its back on convention and delivering English fine bone china with an industrial-chic twist.

Developed by Alchemists for over four years, every piece is dusted by hand with Royal Crown Derby's secretive 'dragon skin powder'. The result is as visually striking as it is original.

Endless depth of pattern and vivid colour spectrums provide a playground for the culinary artist where expression and individuality rule. For the diner, this collection is designed for the memory (and for that perfect Instagram shot).

Darley Abbey

Capturing the regency style of restrained simplicity, Darley Abbey, inspired by the 18th Century, uses delicate lines and intricate curves representing twirling foliage and filigree leaves. Darley Abbey

Harlequin

Darley Abbey Harlequin is a short collection designed to complement the well-renowned Darley Abbey.

Specially conceived to heighten the pleasure of that quintessentially English pastime, taking tea, the additional colours; pink, lavender, and blue to the existing Regency green add individuality and charm to this elegant 18th Century inspired gem.

The teacups feature a new interpretation of the pattern and along with newly designed accent plates add drama and a sense of eclectic fun. Mix and match the colours with abandon or keep them together to enjoy your afternoon tea.

Darley Abbey

Pure Gold

An original interpretation of an historical 18th Century Regency style pattern, Darley Abbey Pure gives a refreshed, distinctive and elegant contemporary look for an optimum dining experience. Offered with a textured white on white pattern with hand applied 22ct gold to accentuate the delicate lines of the damask border pattern representing the twirling foliage and filigree leaf design.

Darley Abbey Pure complements the current Darley Abbey and Darley Abbey Harlequin tableware ranges, all offered on a traditional elegant shape.

Royal Peony

Taking its inspiration from a quintessential English garden, delicate peonies, cosmos and daisies grace this decadent afternoon tea service. Tonal pinks or blues and hand applied 22ct gold elegantly dress the highest quality, English made fine bone china.

Royal Crown Derby's coveted 'Royal' shape was carefully selected for this collection as it's fluted profiles and subtle embossments not only present the pattern perfectly, but also create a true sense of heritage, luxury and romance for the diner.

Royal Crown Derby have been creating afternoon tea services for Royal Palaces since 1750 and these centuries of experience, skill and artistry are skilfully used to create a classic collection, with eclectic flair.

Old Imari

Solid Gold Band

Although the original 1128 Old Imari pattern has a much older history, recorded in Pattern Book number 2, c.1882, its younger variation, 'Solid Gold Band' is just as popular and synonymous with Royal Crown Derby.

Beautifully decorated in the distinctive Derby red and cobalt blue Imari pattern, and heavily embellished with lavish 22ct gold. The highly ornate Old Imari pattern continues to be a favourite amongst Royal Crown Derby collectors.

Chelsea Garden

The Chelsea Garden pattern embodies the traditions of the Imari decoration but utilises a softer palette that sits comfortably with the modern colours and styles of today's homes. The pattern is named in respect from Royal Crown Derby's connections with London's Chelsea factory, which was purchased by the company in 1769.

Titanic

The Titanic was heralded as the finest liner ever built so it had to also have the very best of china in its finest dining room. This pattern was selected by the ship's owners from the Royal Crown Derby archive pattern books over 100 years ago but looking as fresh today as it no doubt did then with a testament to superb design by Royal Crown Derby. The pattern consists of a band of encrusted gold work with painted ornament of chaplet and festoons in the style of Louis XVI, delicately finished in tints of green.

Ashbourne

Ashbourne is inspired by blue and gold patterns from the early Derby pattern books. The full in-glaze blue border has been highly fired to produce a deep rich colouring that changes with different lighting. The simplicity of the plain blue and gold patterned borders is a classic look, which will suit simple, contemporary settings as well as the more traditional. The pattern mixes easily with gold and white as well as more decorative florals.

TUQPAL

Resplendently opulent, the pattern is rooted in the Neo Classical Art and Architecture of the 18th and 19th Century. The designs used across the ware are deliberately dramatic and juxtapose decorative combinations to create exuberant patterns that are expressive and witty. The collection has been designed to create an air of intrigue; each piece is completely unique and individual designs within the range feature hidden decorations with the pattern design trailing to the underneath adding to the eclectic and ornate nature of such a unique range.

Pearl Palace and Amber Palace are amongst some of the most accomplished tableware patterns ever produced by Royal Crown Derby. The pieces have been heavily embellished by applying raised paste underneath gold and platinum to enhance the detail of the decorative motifs and relief. The result is a sumptuously textured finish that delivers unparalleled richness and tactility in dramatic black and amber or the pure translucency of fine bone china to give you Pearl Palace.
